

Go Outside

Red Light Green Light

What you need:

Open area outside

How To Play

“IT” stands far away from the others with their back turned. When IT yells “green light” the players can run towards them. When IT yells “red light” the players must freeze before they turn around to catch anyone who might still be moving. If they do, those players are out. The first person to reach IT gets to be IT next round.

